INFINITE MEANING

WHERE OUR STARS WERE BORN

This is the birthplace of Chicago's flag, and the beginning of its journey around the world. The building may be new, but it sits on hallowed ground, and is the perfect place for us to start our exploration of what the flag means to the city.

INSPIRE OUR YOUTH

BLACK FIRE BRIGADE

The stars on the flag are red in recognition of the fire of 1871, and the brigade was founded in southwest Chicago to inspire under-represented and under-privileged youth to pursue careers in fire science.

This location allows us to celebrate the resilience and commitment Chicagoans show toward each other.

JUSTICE AND EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LAW SCHOOL

One of the best law schools in the world [#4] and an incredibly beautiful building, this location allows us to hit two of the elements woven into the City Flag: Justice and Education.

RESILIENCE AND STRENGTH

CHICAGO WATER TOWER

The tower gained prominence after the Great Chicago Fire of 1871 because it was the only public building in the burned zone to survive, and is one of just a few surviving structures still standing. In the years since, it's become a symbol of the city's resilience and strength.

TRADE AND DESIGN

MERCHANDISE MART

When it was opened in 1930, at 4,000,000 square feet, it was the largest building in the world. For our purposes, The Mart gives us an opportunity to celebrate multiple points of emphasis in the flag, including trade and aesthetics.

URBS IN HORTO

CLARENCE BUCKINGHAM MEMORIAL FOUNTAIN

Besides being one of the most picturesque places in the city, with an incredible view of the skyline, this location is perfect to lean into the city's latin motto: Urbs in Horto [City in a Garden].
